

BIDS AND QUOTATIONS

In purchasing commodities, printing, furniture and equipment, supplies and materials, and services for public works and public buildings, contracts for public construction and other acquisitions, the board prescribes that economy and quality shall be the guide. No discrimination is to be made between the various vendors and minority vendors will be rejection” incidents must be maintained and included in the annual audit report by the state auditor.

It is in the intent of the board to adhere strictly to the formal bid process, as relates to what items must be formally bid, the formulation of open and fair product specifications, the advertising or public notification of the soliciting of bid quotations procedure as mandated by the law, and the awarding of bids on a fair basis consistent with prevailing laws.

Reasonable efforts are to be exerted to secure multiple bids on all items and the board considers it highly desirable to receive a minimum of three bids.
